

I want to express my sincere desire this trade does NOT go through. Voom represents more competition in the DBS market, especially in the adoption and progression of digital TV and high def. TV programming. Past FCC rulings have stimulated competition and variety for consumers, please keep on this trend.